

SENIOR COLLEGES

BARUCH • BROOKLYN
 CCNY • CITY TECH
 HUNTER • JOHN JAY
 LEHMAN • MEDGAR EVERS
 STATEN ISLAND • YORK

COMMUNITY COLLEGES

BMCC • BRONX • HOSTOS
 KINGSBOROUGH • QUEENSBOROUGH

CUNY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

AT QUEENS COLLEGE
 65-30 KISSENA BLVD
 FLUSHING, NY 11367
 PHONE (718) 997-4270
 FAX (718) 997-4276

WWW.CUNYATHLETICS.COM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
 16 November 2009

Contact: Chris Gonzales, Interim Director of Media Relations
 718-997-4273 direct / 914-806-3092 cell
 Chris.Gonzales@mail.cuny.edu

2009-10 CUNYAC SENIOR COLLEGE COMMISSIONER'S CUP UPDATE

Hunter and Baruch Charge Out Front After Fall Season

The race for the 2009-10 CUNY Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup is underway, with Hunter and Baruch Colleges out in front after the fall season. With one-third of the year complete, Hunter has 44 points, with Baruch nipping at their heels with 43. York College is in third place with 25 points, followed by CCNY with 15, Brooklyn fifth with five, and John Jay sixth with three. Staten Island, Lehman, Medgar Evers and City Tech round out the field, each with no points.

Hunter is buoyed by 20 points from women's tennis. The Hawks claimed both the regular season and championship titles to score maximum points. In cross country, the men won the championship meet to score ten points, while the men's soccer program claimed eight points, as the Hawks advanced to the CUNY Athletic Conference championship game.

Baruch scored 15 points in women's volleyball, behind a first place regular season finish and run through to the Conference championship match. Women's cross country captured the championship trophy to score ten points, while women's tennis scored eight points.

York's men's soccer program led the Cardinals by claiming 20 points, finishing first in the regular season and going on to win the conference championship. The Cardinals scored five more points in women's cross country.

CCNY scored all 15 points in women's volleyball, as the Beavers captured the CUNY Athletic Conference championship and advanced into the NCAA Championships.

2009-10 Senior College Commissioner's Cup Standings

1. Hunter College	44 Points
2. Baruch College	43 Points
3. York College	25 Points
4. CCNY	15 Points
5. Brooklyn College	5 Points
6. John Jay College	3 Points
7. Staten Island	0 Points
7. Lehman College	0 Points
7. Medgar Evers College	0 Points
7. NY City Tech	0 Points

Hunter: (Women's Tennis – 20 points, Men's Soccer – 8 points, Women's Volleyball – 3 points, Men's Cross Country – 10 points, Women's Cross Country – 3 pts)

Baruch: (Women's Tennis – 8 points, Women's Volleyball – 15 points, Men's Soccer – 5 points, Men's Cross Country – 5 points, Women's Cross Country – 10 pts)

York: (Men's Soccer – 20 points, Women's Cross Country – 5 points)

CCNY: (Women's Volleyball – 15 points)

Brooklyn: (Women's Tennis – 5 points)

John Jay: (Men's Cross Country – 3 points)

SENIOR COLLEGES

BARUCH • BROOKLYN
 CCNY • CITY TECH
 HUNTER • JOHN JAY
 LEHMAN • MEDGAR EVERS
 STATEN ISLAND • YORK

COMMUNITY COLLEGES

BMCC • BRONX • HOSTOS
 KINGSBOROUGH • QUEENSBOROUGH

CUNY ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

AT QUEENS COLLEGE
 65-30 KISSENA BLVD
 FLUSHING, NY 11367
 PHONE (718) 997-4270
 FAX (718) 997-4276

WWW.CUNYATHLETICS.COM

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
 16 November 2009

Contact: Chris Gonzales, Interim Director of Media Relations
 718-997-4273 direct / 914-806-3092 cell
 Chris.Gonzales@mail.cuny.edu

2009-10 CUNYAC JUNIOR COLLEGE COMMISSIONER'S CUP UPDATE

Kingsborough Nips BMCC and Bronx CC

Kingsborough Community College is in the early lead for the for the 2009-10 CUNY Athletic Conference Commissioner's Cup, with 25 points, with the Borough of Manhattan Community College (24 points) and Bronx Community College (20 points) close behind. Queensborough Community College (5 points) and Hostos Community College (0 points) are farther behind.

The Wave scored 18 points in men's soccer, claiming a share of the regular season championship before winning the conference championship match. Men's cross country and women's volleyball each scored three points apiece, while women's cross country scored one point.

BMCC shared the regular season soccer title to score 14 points, and garnered an additional 10 in women's volleyball. The Panthers placed third in the regular season, then advanced to the championship match.

Bronx earned 19 points in volleyball, winning the regular season and championship titles. The Broncos earned one point in men's cross country.

Queensborough claimed all five points in cross country. Three points were earned by the women, with two by the men.

2009-10 Community College Commissioner's Cup Standings

- | | |
|----------------------------|-----------|
| 1. Kingsborough CC | 25 Points |
| 2. Borough of Manhattan CC | 24 Points |
| 3. Bronx CC | 20 Points |
| 4. Queensborough CC | 5 Points |
| 5. Hostos CC | 0 Points |

Kingsborough CC: (Men's XC – 3 points, Women's XC – 1 point, Men's Soccer – 18 points, Women's Volleyball – 3 points)

Borough of Manhattan CC: (Women's Volleyball – 10 points, Men's Soccer – 14 points)

Bronx CC: (Women's Volleyball – 19 points, Men's Cross Country – 1 point)

Queensborough CC: (Women's Cross Country – 3 points, Men's XC – 2 points)

Hostos CC: 0 points